Terms and Conditions of Service

Adherence to the terms of the Agent Code of Standards is compulsory for all Agents registered with Manchester Student Homes.

All advertisements are accepted at the discretion of Manchester Student Homes.

Information provided on all adverts must be honest and correct at all times.

You will have to advise Manchester Student Homes of any changes to your adverts or properties.

In order to maintain the integrity of the advertising list, when all properties are let, Agents should inform Manchester Student Homes.

Failure to do so could put future registrations at risk.

No refund will be provided for adverts that have been disabled due to, but not limited to, the following:

- Suspension from the scheme
- Expulsion from the scheme
- Non-compliance
- During a serious code complaint

By registering with Manchester Student Homes, you are consenting to your details being held on an internal database. Manchester Student Homes will, if requested, pass these details onto legitimate third parties and statutory bodies. Manchester Student Homes will also use this information to send you details of products and services from carefully vetted companies; however, we will never pass your details on to these companies.

Agents must not approach tenants or display unauthorised publicity material within 100 metres of the Manchester Student Homes office, nor on any Greater Manchester university or college campus or students' union that is affiliated with Manchester Student Homes without prior permission. Such behaviour will result in the withdrawal of registration with immediate effect.

Manchester Student Homes reserves the right to use images of properties on social media networks for the purposes of promoting either the property in particular or the Manchester Student Homes service in general.

Manchester Student Homes accepts no liability whatsoever for published errors where those errors have been copied from a registration form, an accommodation details form or where the details have been entered via the online registration system.

Under no circumstances will Manchester Student Homes be held liable for any consequential or indirect damage, loss of income incurred by the owner or any third party, howsoever caused.
